invite to

a seminar on the application of the "Higher Education Reference Model" (HERM) in Latvian higher education institutions

The topics covered in the seminar will help institutions plan their Information Technology strategies and prepare project proposals for public funding, which, within the framework of European structural funds, are intended for both public and private institutions

AGENDA

11:30 - 12:00	Registration. Tea & Coffee
12:00 - 13:30	Hands-On Workshops (Technical & Functional Teams) Introduction to HERM, mapping of existing systems and processes, review of real organizational situations and scenarios
13:30 - 14:15	Lunch Break
14:15 - 16:00	IT Institution's Strategy in the National Framework (for leaders, study process, and IT teams) Strategic vision, high-level roadmap, cost and benefit analysis, management and alignment with national shared services
16:00 - 16:20	Tea & Coffee Break
16:20 - 17:30	Adoption Approaches and Next Steps International best practices, simple integration and gradual implementation. The role of HERM in long-term management and compatibility

The seminar will be held in English and led by:

Patrik Maltusch - Head of the enterprise architecture team at Aalto University in Finland. Chair of the Finnish EA-SIG, EUNIS EA-SIG

Esa Suominen - Enterprise Architect at the University of Helsinki. Secretary of the EUNIS EA-SIG and the Finnish EA-SIG

*The seminar is organized within the framework of the delegation of the Latvian Ministry of Education and Science under VPC.

Please register by January 20

University of Latvia, House of Science, Jelgavas 3, Riga, 1st floor, Room 103

January 22, 2025, from 11:30 to 17:30

Register